

The Government has announced a clear pathway to seek an ASL cap exemption

It's time for Larry Marshall
to act!

CSIRO must apply for a staffing cap exemption immediately

Concerns over the impact of the Average Staffing Level (ASL) cap were first raised formally with CSIRO Executive by Staff Association representatives almost twelve months ago.

After all that time and despite multiple warnings and clear evidence of the impact of the staffing cap on CSIRO jobs and research; Dr Marshall and CSIRO Executives recently admitted they still haven't decided to ask the Government for an exemption.

It's not good enough; especially now that Finance Minister Mathias Cormann has outlined the process to seek an exemption and all but encouraged CSIRO to apply.

It's time for Larry Marshall to act.

CSIRO must apply to the Government for an ASL cap exemption immediately.
